Description

The Aston Martin Vulcan AMR Pro represents the absolute pinnacle of Aston Martin's track-focused engineering. Developed by Aston Martin Racing's AMR Performance Division, the AMR Pro package transforms the already extraordinary Vulcan into an even more focused and capable machine, incorporating aerodynamic, chassis, and performance enhancements inspired directly by Aston Martin's endurance racing programme. Finished in stunning Saffron Pearl, this exceptional example combines one of Aston Martin's most striking bespoke paint finishes with one of the rarest and most exclusive hypercars ever produced. Built for the world's most discerning collectors and enthusiasts, the Vulcan AMR Pro offers an uncompromising motorsport experience that few vehicles can rival. Constructed almost entirely from carbon fibre and powered by a naturally aspirated V12 producing over 820 horsepower, the Vulcan AMR Pro remains one of the most visceral and rewarding track-only hypercars ever created.
