Description

Released in 2019, on Friday 12 July, during the weekend's American round of the Superbike championship at Laguna Seca. The launch was attended by four times world champion Carl Fogarty and celebrated twenty-five years since the iconic Ducati 916 was released. The 916 to this day is still considered one of the best looking motorcycles of all time and its unique style and elegance made Ducati fans all over the world fall in love. This limited edition run consists of only 500 individually numbered bikes and features a unique livery and exclusive racing components. The Anniversario boasts an awesome specification including Akrapovic titanium silencer, Marchesini Racing forged magnesium wheels, Ducati EVO2 Quick Shift up/down, Adjustable billet aluminium rider footpegs and levers, Brake lever protection, Open clutch cover, Billet aluminium steering head with serial number, two tone rider seat and much more!
