Description

This 2016 Aston Martin Vulcan is a breathtaking expression of engineering purity and design excellence. Finished in Special Volcano Red Metallic, this is Chassis No. 23 of just 24 ever built—a collector-grade track weapon developed with direct input from Aston Martin Racing. Powered by a naturally aspirated 7.0L V12 and constructed almost entirely from carbon fibre, the Vulcan is a pure motorsport machine designed to deliver an unfiltered driving experience like no other. Offered in museum-quality condition, this example has been meticulously maintained and is fully eligible for the AMR Vulcan Track Programme or private circuit use worldwide. PERFORMANCE & ENGINEERING: 7.0L Naturally Aspirated V12 – Over 820 HP Adjustable Horsepower Settings (1 - 500hp, 2 - 675hp, 3 - 820hp) Xtrac 6-Speed Sequential Racing Transmission with Paddle Shifters Carbon Fibre Monocoque & Body Panels – Built by Prodrive Adjustable Multimatic Pushrod Suspension with Anti-Dive Geometry Race-Spec Brembo Carbon Ceramic Brakes with Adjustable ABS Adjustable Traction Control & Aerodynamic Settings 0–60 mph: ~2.9 Seconds (est.) | Top Speed: >200 mph One of few Vulcans with the Castrol Nexcel Quick Change Oil Pod EXTERIOR SPECIFICATION: Finished in Special Volcano Red Metallic – Only Vulcan in this Colour Gloss Carbon Fibre Aero Kit – Front Splitter, Rear Diffuser, Roof & Wing LED Lighting | Center-Locking Magnesium Wheels FIA-Spec Racing Fuel System | Side-Exit Exhausts Bespoke Vulcan Livery in Gloss Black Exposed Carbon Fibre Door Handles INTERIOR & COCKPIT: Full FIA-Compliant Racing Cockpit Recaro Carbon Fibre Racing Seats with Schroth 6-Point Harness' Seats and Trim in Spicy Red and Black Leather Driver-Configurable Display with Data Logging Removable Carbon Fibre Steering Wheel with Integrated Controls Krontec Air-Jack System | Lifeline Inbuilt Fire Suppression System Stilo Intercom System | Bespoke Steering Wheel Box and Pit Equipment Box Air Conditioning | Tyre Pressure Monitoring System Lightweight Trim Throughout – Functional & Purpose-Built Matte Carbon Fibre Dash with Gloss Carbon Fibre Switch Panel Trim OWNERSHIP & TRACK SUPPORT 1 of Only 24 Units Worldwide – Ultra-Rare Investment Opportunity Mileage: [3800KM – Track Use Only] Fully Supported by Aston Martin AMR Track Programme Eligible for Private Track Days & AMR Events Globally Condition: Collector-Grade | Climate-Controlled Storage Designed without compromise and delivered only to Aston Martin's most discerning clientele, the Vulcan is more than just a car—it is a rolling demonstration of Aston Martin's racing DNA and engineering prowess. With fewer units produced than the LeMans 24h grid, this track-only hypercar remains one of the most exclusive and extreme vehicles ever conceived.
