Description

The Lamborghini Urus SE marks a bold new chapter for the world's first Super SUV — introducing electrified performance without compromising the drama, aggression, and unmistakable character that define Lamborghini. As the brand's first plug-in hybrid Urus, the SE delivers significantly enhanced performance, cutting-edge technology, and increased efficiency, all wrapped in an evolved, more aggressive design. Blending a twin-turbo V8 with an advanced electric motor, the Urus SE redefines what a high-performance luxury SUV can be — faster, smarter, and more versatile than ever before.
