Description

Few classic Mercedes-Benz models possess the timeless elegance and enduring appeal of the W113 Pagoda. Introduced in the 1960s, the Pagoda quickly established itself as one of the world's most sophisticated sports tourers, combining elegant Paul Bracq styling with superb engineering, exceptional build quality, and genuine everyday usability. This 1971 Mercedes-Benz 280 SL Pagoda has undergone an incredible full nut-and-bolt restoration, bringing this iconic roadster back to an exceptional standard throughout. Restored with an uncompromising approach to quality and detail, the car presents as a superb example of one of Mercedes-Benz's most celebrated classic models. The result is a Pagoda that retains all of the charm and character of the original while benefiting from an extensive restoration intended to ensure it can be enjoyed for many years to come.
